

WILMINGTON QUARANTINES

The Board of Health Adopts Quarantine Regulations Against Yellow Fever Infected Points—Officers to be Stationed at Florence, Hamlet, Greensboro and Wilmington.

A special meeting of the board of managers of the Produce Exchange, was held yesterday at their rooms.

President Oscar Pearsall stated that he had called the meeting to consider and determine the advisability of taking action on the matter of protection from infection from cities south of us where it is reported that yellow fever exists.

After an informal discussion, on motion of Mr. Chas. E. Borden, the following was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the president of this exchange and Mr. Chas. H. Robinson be appointed a committee to appear before the board of health and to recommend through them to the city authorities that immediate steps be taken to put in operation strict quarantine regulations against infection from all ports to the south where yellow fever is reported to have appeared, and to urge city officials to have our streets and alleys thoroughly cleaned and all refuse removed or burned."

After routine business the board of managers adjourned.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH TAKES ACTION.

A special meeting of the board of health was held yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the office of Dr. W. D. McMillan at the old court house, to consider the advisability of establishing inland quarantine against New Orleans, Ocean City, Biloxi and other yellow fever infected places in the south.

All the members of the board were present, viz: Dr. S. P. Wright, chairman, Dr. Wm. D. McMillan, secretary, Dr. George G. Thomas, Dr. Frank H. Russell, and Mr. Wm. H. Chadbourne.

After the object of the meeting had been stated, Mr. Oscar Pearsall, president of the produce exchange and Mr. C. H. Robinson, who constituted the committee from that body, appeared before the board and presented the resolution adopted by the produce exchange.

In presenting the resolution President Pearsall addressed the board upon the importance of establishing inland quarantine, and informed the committee that he and Mr. Robinson had been appointed to request the board to act upon the suggestions contained in the resolution. Mr. Robinson added some remarks on the importance of prompt action. It was stated that Atlanta had opened her doors to refugees from the fever stricken districts and that there are a thousand or more refugees there and that they are liable to scatter over the country and come to Wilmington.

The committee assured the board that the members of the exchange would co-operate in the effort to have a strict quarantine and that citizens sanctioned any expense necessary to carry it out.

After hearing Messrs. Pearsall and Robinson, Dr. Thomas moved that the secretary address a communication to the produce exchange thanking them for its courtesy in appointing and sending the committee before the board with reference to this important matter. The motion was unanimously adopted.

Dr. Thomas moved that the chairman of this board be instructed to confer with the city authorities and urge upon them to provide four quarantine officers to be stationed immediately at Florence, S. C., Hamlet, N. C., Greensboro, N. C., and Wilson, N. C. The motion was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Chadbourne moved that it be ordered that the streets of the city be not disturbed (by way of making excavations or digging up the same) till October 1st, except in emergency cases. The motion was adopted.

Dr. Thomas moved that this board recommend to the board of aldermen to amend section 15, page 7, of the city health ordinances, by striking out the name of the superintendent of health and inserting the board of health instead. This in effect would make the ordinance provide that none of the streets of the city shall be dug up without the permission of the board of health, instead of by the superintendent of health as heretofore. The motion was adopted, and the secretary was instructed to communicate the recommendation to the board of aldermen for action.

The board then adjourned.

THE OFFICERS TO GO OUT TODAY.

Captain Robert Green, of the police force, will be in charge of the squad of quarantine officers and they will go to their posts of duty today. Policeman H. H. Woelke will be stationed at Fayetteville and Policeman J. W. Holmes at Hamlet. The other two officers will be appointed today. It was decided last night to send an officer Fayetteville instead of Greensboro.

A VESSEL FROM NEW ORLEANS.

The four-mastered schooner William M. Bird, arrived at Southport yesterday morning from New Orleans which port she left August 31st, for Wilmington, Bull River and Baltimore. She had a clean bill of health, but she is detained at quarantine. A telegram to the Messenger from Dr. J. M. Eager, the quarantine physician, states that the schooner is detained for disinfection. It is said that she will be discharged today. She is consigned to Messrs. Geo. Harris, Son & Co.

Raleigh, N. C., September 15.

Major General W. L. DeRosset, the commander of the North Carolina division of confederate veterans, has issued a general order in which he speaks of the laying of the corner stone of the monument to the North Carolina soldiers who lie in Stonewall cemetery, Winchester, Va., and urges as many confederate veterans to be present on September 15th, when Rev. James Battle Averitt delivers and dedicates the 449 headstones, as can possibly go.

At New Bern on October 26th, 27th, 28th and 29th the Oaks Driving Club races will be held. The purses for these races have been increased from $4,000 to $5,000. These purses will be the largest ever offered in North Carolina.

A big excursion reached here yesterday afternoon from Norfolk. It was composed mostly of colored people. With the thermometer in the nineties and no relief in sight there can be but little pleasure for excursionists.

J. L. Milam, the railroad ticket agent in Charlotte, who embezzled over $2,000, was brought here yesterday afternoon and put in the penitentiary for two years.

It is now proposed if the machinery at the Greystone quarry is suitable for the city to purchase it and put it in operation out at the rock quarry on the edge of the city, from which rock is to be used for the street improvements here. The Greystone quarry has not been operated for some time.

At the Yancey county court last week Riley Paie was convicted of the killing of Matt Hensley and sentenced to hang on October 15th. An appeal was taken.

The attendance at Wake Forest college has gone over the 200 mark. Education seems to have gotten on a big boom, from the reports of the attendance at the different colleges.

The American Forestry Association will hold a special autumn meeting in Nashville on the 22nd and on their way they will view the extensive forestry system of Vanderbilt's estate at Biltmore.

Dr. C. F. Nichols, of Boston, was here yesterday. He is acting for "The Invalid Aid Society," of Boston, of which he is one of the vice presidents.

The object of this society is to seek out climates suitable for consumption and establish sanitariums there for these consumptives. Dr. Nichols is here looking into the conditions with an idea of establishing one somewhere in this state, possibly in Moore county.

There were twenty applicants before the board of pharmacy yesterday for license for druggists. One of the applicants was a young lady.

A letter from Colonel A. B. Andrews says he went through a snow storm in Colorado. A telegram message comes today saying he is in San Francisco.

There can be no definite knowledge gained as to why the penitentiary board is called to meet here next week. Wheeler Martin, a director, wants to know why it is called.

Mr. E. Chambers Smith, who was to take evidence in the Langdon-Hensley case, has heard evidence for four days. He has adjourned the hearing until the 23rd, and claims will be heard then. The plaintiff's petition to remove Hensley as receiver has been heard.

Women Known by Their Purse.

The Boston Herald finds that "it has been stated, perhaps by detectives, that the age and a great knowledge of the whole character of a woman can be gained from the contents of her pocket-book. The business woman always has a number of receipts bills, a quantity of cash in her pocketbook, while the mother of a family usually has many unrecipited bills, little cash, and the sides bursting with samples and bargain advertisements. The average young lady has a favorite poem stowed away in a corner, and invariably a copy of something bordering on the superstitious. For instance, while the writer was in a State street jeweler's the other morning a tortoise-shell porthemone was found on the floor. It contained 85 cents, and far back in a secret pocket, a poem entitled 'Soul for Soul.' It began:

Oh, eyes that pierce me through and draw my very soul away. Your sunshine may not fill my life Nor turn my darkness into day. 'Next to that piece of sentiment was a small card with the young lady's name and weight printed upon it. On the reverse side of the card was a date with the words: 'If the sun shines three days after this, you will have good luck for nine days.' About noontime a beautiful little brunette, all anxiety and blushes, hurried in to claim the purse."

To Fumigate the Mails

Washington, September 15.—The postoffice department has taken the matter of fumigation of mails from the infected districts under consideration and railway superintendents will be directed to fumigate mails from such places when it is demanded by the local authorities. Surgeon Carter at New Orleans and the passed assistant surgeon at Mobile have been directed to establish a train inspection service on all passenger trains leaving the city.

A VALUABLE COLLECTION.

Of Books and Pamphlets Relating to North Carolina—North Carolinians Abroad—Familiar Friends of an Insane Man (Special Correspondence.)

Messenger Bureau, Park Hotel.

Raleigh, N. C., September 11.

The recent visit of Dr. Stephen B. Weeks to Raleigh was quite successful. He did much work for the United States government and also procured for himself nearly 300 books and pamphlets relating to North Carolina.

He has now over 2,000 such. He secured two copies of the reports of the Tolara-McRae trial at Raleigh in 1867. For one copy of this $20 was recently offered. He says the "gem" of his entire collection is an "Abstract of the army accounts of the Continental Line," being of the North Carolina troops in the United States service in the war of the revolution. There is an imperfect copy of this in the office of the state auditor. These are the only two in existence.

Weeks also has a number of original editions of the "Session Laws," as early as 1752.

It is to be deplored that this state does not have a "bookish" man or woman as state librarian, and make the office one for life and non-political. J. L. Milam, the railroad ticket agent in Charlotte, who embezzled over $2,000, was brought here yesterday afternoon and put in the penitentiary for two years.

FIVE MEN LYNCHED

THEY ARE TAKEN FROM AN INDIANA JAIL AND HANGED

The People Determined to Rid Themselves of a Gang of Burglars—A Confederate Given Away a Plan for a Robbery—One Secrecy Broken and Capture the Burglars—The Jail Broken Open—Two of the Men Shot and are Shot Down. The Lynching.

Louisville, Ky., September 15.—A special to The Evening Post from Osgood, Ind., says: Incensed by murderous depredations and repeated burglaries, the people of Ripley county have taken the law into their own hands, and meted out to the perpetrators a punishment greater than provided for by the law. Five men who have long been a terror to the citizens of this county met their fate at their hands today.

Stout ropes not over six feet in length served to send each to eternity.

Versailles is a town of 800 people. It is one of the oldest towns of the state and although it is five miles from a railroad station and has no telegraph station, it is still the county seat. For four years farmers have been robbed. Farmers would come into town with a bunch of cattle or load of farm products and next morning they would be found along the roadside suffering from a wound and minus the proceeds of their produce.

Agged German women have been forced to stand upon a red hot stove in an effort to compel them to disclose the hiding place of some treasure in the house. These depredations have continued unceasingly. Arrests have been made, but the guilty parties had covered up their lawlessness and it was seldom that conviction followed.

During the past week robberies had increased alarmingly. On last Saturday word was received by the sheriff that the store of Woolley Bros., at Corbett, Ind., ten miles from here, was to be entered. The information was given by one of the gang's confederates who had been suspected. Sheriff Henry Bushing arranged that his informant should accompany them and securing five deputies they went to the place. Sheriff Bushing concealed himself in the cellar, while his deputies were stationed at a convenient distance outside. Shortly after midnight the gang reached Woolley Bros' store. Clifford Gordon and the sheriff's informant were designated to break into the building. Gordon himself effected an entrance and just as he stepped inside the sheriff grabbed him. Both pulled pistols at the same time and began firing. Andrews was with the robbers and he, too, joined in the fusillade. The deputies came to the assistance of the sheriff. The sheriff was shot through the arm and Gordon was shot several times. Two pistol balls entered his body and he was also shot in the leg. Gordon and Andrews succeeded in escaping and came where they were arrested. The robbers had driven to the place in a buggy belonging to Leslie Levy. From information subsequently gathered it was learned that the robbery had been planned at the home of Wm. Schuler. The two later were arrested as accessories. All were taken to the jail at Versailles. Henry Schuler, 24 years old, was put in the jail for robbery as the barber shop last May. He was 25 years old and Gordon and Jennings 25 years of age. The citizens have not been able to fix the various crimes upon these men. They were thought to be part of a gang that has committed most of them. When it became known it was quickly suggested by the victims and sympathizers that justice be dealt.

Shortly before 2 o'clock there was a knock at the door and when Kenna and others opened it they were presented with pistols by three masked men and asked to turn over the keys. This they did and then the mob fled into the jail. Three of the prisoners, Levi, Jennings and Schuler, were on the lower floor, while Gordon and Andrews were in the upper. Jennings and Schuler showed fight and the former was shot through the breast. Ropes were in readiness and adjusting a noose around the necks, the hands were pinioned and the march began. Justice of the Peace Chase held an inquest over the five bodies this morning.

Indianapolis, Ind., September 15.—Governor Mount has sent the following to the sheriff of Ripley county: "Wire me at once the particulars of the lynching that has occurred in your county. I further direct that you proceed immediately with all the power you can command to bring to justice all parties guilty of participation on the murder of the five men alleged to have been lynched. Such lawlessness is intolerable and all the power of the state, if necessary, will be vigorously employed for the arrest and punishment of all parties implicated."

Death of Mrs. E. A. Anderson

There fell asleep in Jesus at 6 a. m.

yesterday at the family residence, on Front and Ann streets, Mrs. Mary Colt Anderson, widow of the late Dr. Edwin A. Anderson, aged 74 years. The deceased lady has been an invalid some months, but she quietly bore her sufferings with fortitude and Christian resignation, and uncomplaining, passed into the other life.

Mrs. Anderson was born in Wilmington September 9, 1823, and was the lineal descendant, five generations removed, of Governor Lillington, the first governor of North Carolina in the colonial period. Governor Lillington, under a grant of the lord proprietors, was the founder of Lillington Hall, once in New Hanover county, but now in Pender county, fifteen miles from Wilmington, and in the family burying ground there sleep the ancestors of her who has just passed away. She was the daughter of the late Major John A. Lillington, grand daughter of Colonel George Lillington, and great-granddaughter of General Alexander Lillington, of colonial fame, and hero of the Battle of Moore's Creek, near this city.

She was married to Dr. Anderson on December 24, 1841, and five children survive them, viz: Mrs. T. H. McKoy, Mrs. T. B. Harris, and Miss Ellen Anderson, of this city; Dr. William Anderson, a wholesale druggist of Ocala, Fla., and Lieutenant Edwin A. Anderson, of the United States navy, serving on the United States cruiser Marblehead, stationed in New York harbor. Dr. Anderson has been here a couple of days and Lieutenant Anderson got here last evening, so that all the children will be present at the funeral, which takes place today at 10:30 a. m. at St. James Episcopal church and thence to Oakdale cemetery.

A friend who knew Mrs. Anderson intimately writes as follows for The Messenger:

"Another most estimable and lovable character has passed from the cares and troubles of this mortal life to the joys of the life eternal. In her death, the church militant loses one of her most faithful and consistent members; society one of its brightest ornaments; the poor, a friend in need; her children, a most loving, devoted mother—one, whom in every respect they could feel proud to call by that holy name. Queenly in her bearing, noble in every relation of life, amiable, affectionate and gentle in manner, possessed of rare culture and gifts of conversational powers, she drew around her many friends who admired her for her intelligence and dignity, and loved her warmly for the sterling virtues that adorned her character. An innate modesty marked her every action, and lent a charm even to the daily duties of life, and made her very lovable. She was a noble specimen of true Christian womanhood, a devoted follower of the Saviour of mankind, and had she lived in His day would doubtless have been found among those weeping, Godly women, the last at the cross and the first at the tomb.

"She was the second vice president of the Ladies' Oakdale Memorial Association, with her friend, the late lamented Mrs. Julia Oakley as president, upon whose resignation she was unanimously chosen president of the association. Under their efficient management, with the untiring aid of the late Mr. A. H. VanBokkelen, the association's best friend, the unknown confederate dead were removed to the beautiful lot donated by the Oakdale Cemetery Company, an iron railing placed around it, and the grand monument raised which now marks this resting place, with the old weather beaten sentinel keeping silent watch over their hallowed dust. No wonder that their loving eyes rested with pride upon the success of their work which, without the aid of that good man, called several years since to meet his reward, a loss to the association and the community, the task would have been almost unending. Nor did the work end there. Under Mrs. Anderson's presidency was conceived and carried out by her the idea of placing a stone, by the association, to mark the grave of each confederate soldier, and many a brave soldier's grave would remain in obscurity in coming ages, but for that white stone, a fit emblem in its purity of the unsullied character of our dear president. She served the association faithfully and acceptably for eight years, resigning only because her devoted husband thought her health unequal to the duties of the office, and it was with great reluctance that he friends consented to her resignation. To none was it harder than the humble writer of this tribute, who worked under her in the association during the whole of her presidency in love and harmony and in whose heart the memory of her loving friendship will be cherished, until the happy reunion beyond the river."

Lincoln Journal: George Sigmon of Calabaz county, we are informed, last week refused an offer of $1,000 for 1,000 bushels of wheat.

A Carrier Pigeon from Andree Logansport, Ind., September 12.—A carrier pigeon with a message signed "Andree" has been captured in this vicinity. The writing is in English, but it is thought that the explorer sent out the messages in all languages. The bird was first seen to fly over a small town called Idaville, near here and was next seen when it alighted on Farmer Weeks' house in an exhausted condition. Its capture was easy, but in getting the bird down it was injured and died this morning. Its right foot had a small aluminum band around it, on which was inscribed "No 21," and the letter "A." Under the left wing was a parchment containing some badly discolored writing, out of which only the following could be read: "August 29, Pole," and the next erased. Then the signature "Andree." The action of the wing had worn the parchment and erased the writing. The whole had been tied on the body of the bird, and while not loose, had evidently been in all kinds of weather. At first it was thought that a practical joke had been played but the exhausted condition of the bird disproved that.
